

TWO BUSINESSES WERE BORN THE SAME YEAR.

B 17 IN THE END, THE SECOND BUSINESS CARRIES:

1. memory and late counts
2. stock and sales that don't match
3. finds out after the fact
4. everyone improvises
5. accepts stories that blame it all on him
6. does not understand why its costs keep rising
7. copies recipes without checking where they come from
8. reacts once the consequence has arrived
9. decides with old maps
10. rebuilds the data every time
11. does not know its margin or how much debt it carries
12. only checks its stability when cash gets tight
13. loses focus, profit and cooperation
14. pays dearly for what was already solved
15. mixes household money with business money
16. does not even take what was free
17. has no one to ask who has seen it before
